Étienne Souriau - Dramatic Functions

(Protostructuralist system for analysis of the functions assigned to characters and producing conflict)

```
\Omega
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               = force or desire = Lion
ď
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            = rival or opponent
                                                                                                                                          = Mars
                                                                                                                                       = Sun = desired good (object)
  \odot
φ
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               = desired recipient
                                                                                                                                             = Earth
\widehat{=}
                                                                                                                                             = Balence
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  = arbiter
                                                                                                                                          = Moon
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               = helper (combines with any 5 above)
(
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 \hat{a} \odot \hat{a} \circ \hat{b} \circ
```